

I ask you to rescind your unreasonable intention to create a monopolistic media empire. It is contrary to all democratic principles and it will only enrich 3 or 4 monopolies. The public will be deprived of varied views on news and entertainment.

Sincerely Harry Loeb and it is not in the "public" or "national" interest to provide an opportunity for a few giant corporations to control a large percentage of them through "broadcast" services. This is a very poor idea which will not serve the public in the ability to present divergent views on public issues.
